
In Dagestan, probe launched in explosion near traffic police post

A Lada-Priora vehicle was blown up today, near a traffic police post in Derbent District, Dagestan. According to preliminary information, two police officers died in the explosion, two more were wounded. The Dagestan authorities of the Investigative Committee have launched an investigation.

An investigative team of the Dagestan Directorate of the Investigative Committee is working at the scene at the moment. They are looking into all the details of the crime.

15 February 2016

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1016863>