
Armenia's President awards Investigative Committee Chairman order of friendship

President Serzh Sargsyan of Armenia awarded today the Chairman of the Russia's Investigative Committee with the Order of Friendship, a state award of Armenia. The awarding ceremony was held in Armenian Embassy in Moscow.

The Order of Friendship is a state award of Armenia instituted on 9 August 2014. The Order is awarded for significant services done for consolidation and development of cooperation in different areas of activity.

Accepting the award, Mr. Bastrykin thanked President Sargsyan and noted that “considers the award as recognition of the efforts of the Russia's Investigative Committee and the high level of interaction with the law-enforcement authorities of Armenia for consolidation of law and order”.
