
Alexander bastrykin delivered a speech in front of the russia's ministry of foreign affairs employees in the diplomatic academy

Today at the Diplomatic academy of the Russia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs in the framework of holding courses for ambassadors, minister counselors, consuls general of Russia being appointed newly, the Chairman of the Russia's Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin delivered a speech on a topic: "Aspects of the international legal activity of the Russia's Investigative Committee".

In his speech Alexander Bastrykin focused his attention on issues of provision authorities of Investigative Committee of international legal cooperation in sphere of criminal proceedings which is provided by day-to-day interaction of it with the representatives of competent foreign states bodies, international organizations, as well as with Russia's Ministry of Foreign Affairs and its foreign entities.

Head of Media Relations V.I. Markin

21 April 2016

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1031993>