

---

The suspect of the murder of the local resident and her 5-year old daughter detained in the Perm territory

The investigation of a criminal case about murder of a 51-year old woman and her 5-year old daughter committed in the early hours of April 28 in the territory of a bath complex situated at Naberezhnaya street of krai center is continued by the Russia's Investigative Committee bodies for the Perm Territory.

Thanks to investigation actions and detective events grammatically planned and held the suspect was detained in Krasnokamsk in the early hours of April 29, 2016. I was a 32-year old worker of the bath complex.

Investigators believe, the alcohol intoxicated young man committed a murder the bath complex owner and her juvenile daughter, after which he escaped immediately. The investigators and employees of a forensics department of the regional Russia's I.C. in interaction with operational police officers have immediately organized active investigative events to establish his location and to detain him. In the course of conducting of a large scale operation, understanding the non-promise of his situation and the inevitability of a detention, the youth called himself to law enforcement agencies and confessed.

At present it is decided whether to remand him in custody or not. Research and investigative events aimed at thorough establishment of all the circumstances of committed crime and its motives are being undertaken, evidence is being collected and proved. The investigation of the criminal case continues

29 April 2016

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1033829>