
Investigative Committee Academy hosts meeting with FR State Duma deputy Gennady Zyuganov

Chairman of the Communist party of the RF State Duma Gennady Zyuganov has today met with refresher training students, students of the law institute and professors at the Investigative Committee Academy.

During the meeting Mr. Zyuganov told them about the history of Russia, heroism of the Russian people displayed during reforms and wars. He noted good material and intellectual resources the Academy has to train high-class specialists and future investigators.

Mr. Zyuganov also answered the questions students asked about the reforms in Russia, including those in the area of law-enforcement authorities.

24 May 2016

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1041914>