
Alexander Bastrykin takes part in last school bell in Alexander Nevsky Cadet School

On 24 May 2016, Chairman of the Investigative Committee took part in the event celebrating the last school bell in the Alexander Nevsky Cadet School of the Investigative Committee.

Head of Training and Education Office of the Investigative Committee Sergei Petrov, Chairman of the board of the interregional NGO The Moscow and Moscow Region Club of Heroes of the USSR, Heroes of the Russian Federation and holders of the Order of Glory the Hero of the USSR Colonel General of air force Nikolai Antoshkin, Chairman of the National Association of NGO of investigation veterans The Union of Investigation Veterans Vladimir Dontsov, representative of the Kikotya University of the Russian Interior Ministry of Moscow Lieutenant Colonel Yuri Smirnov, Head of Kuzminki municipal district Alan Kalabekov, Head of Kuzminki board Lyudmila Akubekova, employees of the central office of the Investigative Committee, parents and guests of honor congratulated the graduates.

Chairman of The Club of RF Commanders General of Army Anatoly Kulikov awarded the Club's grants to the best cadets Kristina Muravyova, Arina Osadchaya, Ivan Danilov, Artyom Osetrov, Olga Berezina.

Junior cadets also congratulated the graduates, while the latter ones passed on their instructions. As the tradition goes the graduates gave flowers to their teachers. The official ceremony was followed by a gala.

Head of Media Relations V.I. Markin

24 May 2016

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1041943>