One of accused of fire in print shop in Northeastern Moscow detained

The Moscow Directorate of the Investigative Committee continues the investigation into a fire in a storehouse that killed several people. Investigators have pressed charges of a crime under Part 3 of Article 219 of the RF Penal Code (violation of fire safety) in absentia against CEO of Pechatny express, a limited liability company, Sergei Moskvina and chief engineer of the company Anton Yatskov who was in charge of fire safety.

As a result of well-planned tactics, Sergei Moskvina has come into touch and under the load of the evidence has decided to turn up in the Moscow Directorate of the Investigative Committee and confess to the crime. At the moment he is being questioned about all the details of the crime, including whereabouts of Anton Yatskov. The restraint is expected soon. The investigation is ongoing.

As became known earlier, on the morning of 27 August 2016, a fire started in a storehouse in Altufyevskoye highway in Moscow and then spread to 4 floors of the building. Bodies 16 people were found at the fire scene and another person died in a hospital.

According to the current criminal procedure laws confession is an extenuating circumstance and is
