
Alexander Bastrykin receives citizens in Moscow

Alexander Bastrykin held reception of citizens in Moscow on 14 September 2016. The Chairman of the Russia's Investigative Committee received residents of Kaluga, Moscow, Ryazan and Nizhny Novgorod Regions.

Most of the complaints related to procedural decisions made over criminal cases investigated in regional authorities of the Investigative Committee.

Following the reception, Mr. Bastrykin gave explicit instructions to heads of territorial investigating bodies. The consideration of all received complaints and appeals is under personal control of the Chairman.

Head of Media Relations

V.I Markin

14 September 2016

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1067035>