
Preliminary check underway in burns got by two minors in Moscow's Kopotnya

The Moscow Directorate of the Investigative Committee is carrying out a preliminary check in an incident during which two teenagers got burns in southeastern Moscow.

It has been established that on the evening of 9 November 2016, two teenagers fell in a pit filled with boiling water near blocks of flat in 3rd quarter, Kapotnya, Moscow. At the moment both of them are being treated in a hospital.

The investigators are examining the scene and questioning possible eye-witnesses. A procedural decision will be made following the check. In addition, the investigators are going to give legal assessment to the actions of those responsible for maintenance of the said area.

10 November 2016

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1079409>