
Officials of Investigative Committee's Central Office congratulate on coming New Year inmates of Murom Specialized Infant Home

15 officials of different divisions of the Investigative Committee have visited Murom Specialized Infant Home, a state public health institution of Vladimir Region to congratulate its inmates on the coming New Year.

They presented domestic appliances, sweets, biscuits and fruits purchased on volunteer donations of Investigative Committee's staff and which comply with recommendations and requests of the facility's staff.

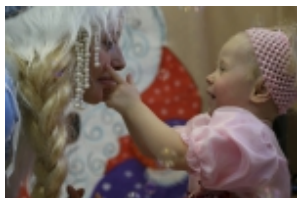

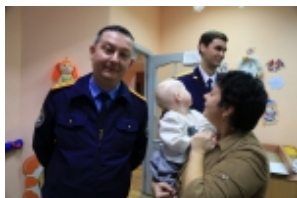

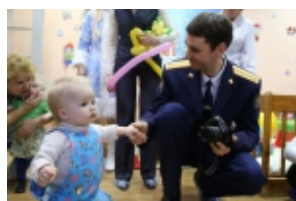

Traditionally, Russian Association of Social Technologies and Initiatives, an interregional NGO for assistance and support of social initiative, gave New Year presents to the staff and inmates of the Infant Home and thanked the staff for raising children. Union of Investigation Veterans, the National Association of organizations of investigation veterans prepared New Year treat baskets and gave them to each employee of the Infant Home.

A celebratory event with Ded Moroz and Snegurochka was organized for the children to take part in outdoor games and dance competitions. The officials of the Investigative Committee talked to children and gave them balloons and sweets.

Practical assistance events for the first half of 2017 were discussed with the administration of the Infant Home.
