
Investigative Committee Chairman congratulates chair of the Federation Council Valentina Matviyenko on her birthday

Chairman of the Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin has congratulated Chair of the Federation Council of the Federal Assembly Ms. Valentina Matviyenko.

Speaking about Ms. Matviyenko as an outstanding statesperson, Mr. Bastrykin noted “that today the Federation Council is facing some serious challenges: to strategic aims for the country’s development, implementation of legislative initiatives, keeping balance between federal and regional interests, guarantying constitutional rights and freedoms to citizens. High level of professionalism, exceptional sense of responsibility, profound knowledge of state problems and devoted work to cope with them, those are summands of Ms. Matviyenko’s well-deserved authority.”

Mr. Puchkov also added that Ms. Matviyenko always sticks to the key principle of unquestionably advocating her country’s interests, helping its development and wellbeing.

Mr. Bastrykin sincerely wished Ms. Matviyenko cheerful mood, sound health, wellbeing peace and good, and further successful work for the benefit of Russia!

07 April 2017

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1114445>