
Person involved in Saint-Petersburg terrorist attack arrested by investigator's request

By request of the investigator of Major Cases Directorate of the Russian Investigative Committee a court has put 27-year-old Abror Azimov in custody pending trial. He was detained yesterday in Odintsovo District, Moscow Region. According to investigators Azimov is accomplice in a crime, his role is being determined.

Organizers of the terrorist attack are being search for.

Official spokesperson for the RF Investigative Committee S.L. Petrenko

18 April 2017

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1117149>