International science conference takes place in Moscow Investigative Committee Academy

The International science conference “Solving, investigation and prevention of crimes, connected with abuse of children” has taken place today in the MoscowInvestigativeCommitteeAcademy.

The Acting Principal of the Academy Anatoly Bagmet, the Deputy Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee Alexander Fyodorov, the Head of the Procedural Control for Investigation of Certain Types of Crimes Office of the Russian Investigative Committee Evgeniya Minayeva, Deputy Head of the Criminalistics Directorate of the Investigative Committee Anatoly Sazonov, heads and employees of investigative Offices of the Russian Investigative Committee, scientists, postgraduates of the leading Russian univesities, faculty and students of the Moscow Investigative Committee Academy.

In the opening speech Anatoly Bagmet greeted all the participants in behalf of the Chairman of the

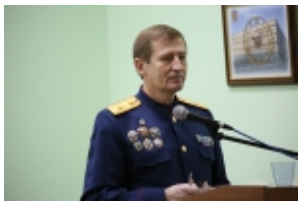
© 2024 The investigative committee of the Russian Federation

Russian Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin and pointed out that this conference gives actual results, including new additions to legislation, aimed at boosting of solvability and investigation of crimes, connected with abuse of children, and the conference is deemed to become a significant event in scientific sphere.

The Deputy Chairman of the Investigative Committee Alexander Fyodorov, the Head of the Procedural Control for Investigation of Certain Types of Crimes Office of the Russian Investigative Committee Evgeniya Minayeva, Deputy Head of the Criminalistics Directorate of the Investigative Committee Anatoly Sazonov, professor of the Criminialistics Chair of the Academy of Management of the Russian Ministry of the Interior Anatoly Kustov, Professor of the Criminialistics Chair of the Kutafin's Moscow State Legal University Nadezhda Kruchinina, professor of the Criminal Policy Chair of the Academy of Management of the Russian Ministry of the Interior Larisa Belyayeva, Head of the Theory and Principles of Teaching Law of the Legal Department of the Volga Federal University Yelena Ibragimova, the state forensics expert, the Head of the Forensics Office of the State Forensics Institution of the Moscow Region Healthcare Yelena Grigoryeva and other scientists presented their reports on the conference.

Important matters that appear during solving, investigation and prevention of crimes of violence, committed against children were discussed during the conference, as well as problems concerning protection of children's rights by government and providing them with help in case of abuse. Proposals on changing legislation in that field were proposed on the conference.

Изображения



20 April 2017

Page address: https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1117924

© 2024 The investigative committee of the Russian Federation