

Check launched in media reports on rights violation in Oryol

A federal TV channel has shown a piece of news that the Oryol administration is not providing former orphanage inmate Eduasrd Kolesnev with housing he is entitled to have by law, so he has to go to courts to find justice. However, he still has no house to live in. The Oryol Region Office of the Investigative Committee has launched a check in the incident.

In addition, the news story went on saying that the Oryol administration was not executing a large number of similar court decision violating legal rights and interests of local residents.

Investigators are going to give legal assessment to the actions (omission) of administration's officials. They are now looking into all the circumstances surrounding the incident. A procedural decision will be made following the check.
