
Chairman of RF Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin meets President of Armenia Serg Sargsyan in Yerevan

After the second joint meeting of boards of the Russian, Armenian and Belorussian Investigative Committees, President of Armenia Serg Sargsyan has held a working meeting with Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin, Chairman of the Armenian Investigative Committee Agvan Ovsepyan and representative of the Belorussian Investigative Committee Ivan Noskevich.

The parties discussed trilateral cooperation in criminal proceedings, noted necessity of further development of the cooperation to respond efficiently to new challenges and threats. They also talked about higher efficiency of international cooperation during investigation of criminal cases.

Изображения

18 October 2017

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1172915>