prevented other companies from taking part in municipal biddings for road construction contracts. Pushkaryov brothers are also charged with commercial bribery of 4.2 million rubles given to Andrei Lushnikov for him as director of Vladivostok Roads acted in the interests of AO Vostoktsement by buying the construction materials. Illegal actions of the accused caused Vladivostok Roads a damage of 143.6 million rubles and a loan debt of over 600 million rubles.

In addition, the investigators believe that Lushnikov abused his power when he spent 11.5 million rubles of Vladivostok Roads to buy forged bank guarantees which he then used as collateral when concluding government contracts.

The Prosecutor's Office has signed the indictment. The case has been referred to the RF Supreme Court for it to determine which court has its jurisdiction.
