
Man charged and arrested in house collapse case in Izhevsk

As part of the investigation into house collapse in the town of Izhevsk, the Head Office of the Investigative Committee has charged Alexander Kopytov with murder of two or more people by generally dangerous means under Part 2 of Article 105 of the RF Criminal Code. A court has ruled to place the accused in custody pending trial.

As became known earlier, according to a preliminary version, the motive of the crime was a personal one.

The investigators continue necessary investigative operations to find out all the circumstances surrounding the crime and to collect and register the evidence.
