
Investigative Committee Chairman meets South Ossetia's president and prosecutor general

Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee Alexander Bastrykin has hosted today a meeting with President of South Ossetia Anatoly Bibilov and Prosecutor General of South Ossetia Uruzmag Dzhagayev.

During the meeting the parties discussed bilateral cooperation in legal assistance and some areas of further development of interagency interaction on the corresponding field.

The parties noted positive experience of refresher training representatives of the Prosecutor General's Office of South Ossetia had at the Moscow Academy of the RF Investigative Committee.

Изображения

15 November 2017

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1179913>