
Alexander Bastrykin plans meeting injured parties of 2016 Khanty-Mansi Autonomous Area road accident

The Head Office of the Investigative continues investigating traffic accident that happened on 4 December 2016 in Khanty-Mansi Autonomous Area. Investigators plan to examine all circumstances of the tragedy in a thorough and impartial way and to prosecute those involved in the crime.

Progress and results of the probe are under constant control of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee, who has met the parents of children injured and killed in the accident. Alexander Bastrykin plans to visit the region soon to once again meet the parents and hear out what they have to say about the probe.

The case against headmaster of children's sports school Sibiryak I. Tarasova, bus driver M. Zainullin, representative of a carrier A. Sidoruk and Volvo truck driver R. Saitkhanov is being tried in court of law now.

Spokesperson for the Investigative Committee Svetlana Petrenko

19 January 2018

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1196875>