
Investigators of the Investigative Committee of Russia launch a probe into former Head of Karabulak administration of Republic of Ingushetia exceeding official authority

A probe into Muslim Yandiev, the former head of Karabulak Municipal District administration of Republic of Ingushetia, also holding position of chief of administration of the Head of the Republic of Ingushetia from May to September 2019, was launched by the Main Investigations Directorate over North Caucasian Federal District of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation as part of work for decriminalization of Republic of Ingushetia carried out by the Investigative Committee of Russia in collaboration with other law enforcement bodies. He is suspected of committing several offences under Part 2 of Article 286 of the Criminal Code of Russia (exceeding official powers).

According to investigation, in 2015-2016 Yandiev, holding position of the Head of Karabulac

Municipal Administration, illegally signed and handed out to a number of citizens extracts from householding books containing forged data on rights of these citizens to use land plots that provided grounds for registering their ownership rights. As a result of illegal activities land plots of total cadastre value of 3.2 million rouble were excluded from municipal property.

Investigative and other procedural measures aimed to establish all circumstances of the committed offences are currently being carried out. The investigation is considering pre-trial detention for Yandiev.
