
Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia transferred the probe into a traffic accident in Kirov Region entailing death of a 6-year-old child to the Central Office for further investigation

In July of this year in Kirov Region, a six-year-old boy rode a bike on a country road and was killed by a car driven by an acting police officer - operative attendant of Nemsky checkpoint of Kilmezsky Intermunicipal Division of the Ministry of Internal Affairs. The Kirov Regional Directorate of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation is investigating a probe under Part 3 of Article 264 of the Criminal Code of Russia (traffic violation) into this fact. An expert found 0.51 ppm of alcohol in the boy's blood; parents of the boy strongly disagree with this fact.

Due to high impact of the case and necessity of a qualified expert re-examination, Alexander Bastrykin instructed to refer the probe to the Central Office for further investigation and comprehensive investigation to examine all arguments of the boy's parents and to arrange forensic re-examinations.

Official spokesperson for the Investigative Committee of Russia

S. Petrenko

17 October 2019

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1400615>