

---

Alexander Bastrykin instructs the Central Office to examine the probe into death of mother of two children in Tyumen Region

Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Alexander Bastrykin instructed the Central Office to examine the probe investigated by Tyumen Regional Investigations Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia into the death of a young woman in Tobolsk (Article 110 of the Criminal Code of Russia).

Today a federal channel discussed death of a mother of two children in Tobolsk of Tyumen Region. The body of a 25-year-old woman was discovered underneath windows of the apartment on October 3, 2019. Relatives of the young woman blame the husband of the former officer of internal affairs bodies. On-site investigative actions were also criticized.

Alexander Bastrykin ordered to request materials of the designated probe, to verify data announced during the program and to make procedural decisions if necessary. The further investigation will be supervised by the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.

---

Official spokesperson for the Investigative Committee of Russia S. Petrenko

21 October 2019

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1402380>