
In Republic of Tatarstan, probe launched into the mother that illegally handed-off the control of the car to her young son

The Tatarstan Regional Office of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation launched a probe into a woman suspected of committing offences under Article 125 of the Criminal Code of Russia (abandoning to danger), Article 156 of the Criminal Code of Russia (failure to discharge the duties of bringing up a minor).

It will be recalled that earlier the resident of Naberezhnye Chelny, mother of many children, posted a video on one of the social networks, which shows that her 6-year-old son is driving a car moving at high speed. Moreover, a woman had already posted a video, where her other young child was driving the car.

The suspect will be interrogated in the near future. Investigative activities aimed at determining the circumstances of the offence are in progress. The criminal investigation is ongoing under the supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.
