
Alexander Bastrykin gives a number of instructions to regional investigative departments

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to report about progress of investigation of a probe into poisoning of trainees in Vologda Region. The Vologda Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia launched a probe under Part 1 of Article 238 of the Criminal Code of Russia (rendering of services that do not meet safety requirements) into a fact of mass poisoning of trainees of Vologda Institute of Law and Economics of the Federal Penitentiary Service of Russia. At the moment, investigation is establishing all circumstances of the incident.

Alexander Bastrykin instructed the acting head of Krasnodar Territorial Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to launch a probe into a road accident involving a bus. It was previously reported about a road accident with a bus in Tbilissky District of Krasnodar Region entailing injuring of two children and a teacher. The regional investigative department of the Investigative Committee of Russia is processing a pre-investigative probe into this fact. According to data, at a road section Khutor Nevelinsky - Sheremetyevskoe the driver of a Lada car collided with a school bus in front of it that was carrying pupils. As a result of the accident the bus overturned. Two children born in 2007 and 2008 and a teacher were injured, their lives are out of danger. The passenger car driver also received injuries.

Apart from that, Alexander Bastrykin requested a report on episodes of beating of teenagers in St. Petersburg. A number of mass media reported about a 17-year-old young man who refused to yield and made a remark about a driver of a BMW car who decided to jump traffic through a sidewalk. The driver knocked the pedestrian over, seized his phone and threw it away. Alexander Bastrykin instructed the acting head of St. Petersburg Investigative Department to file a motion for referral of the probe to the Investigative Committee of Russia. Apart from that Alexander Bastrykin instructed to launch a probe into beating of a 14-year-old boy by a 34-year-old man on a playground in St. Petersburg. The victimized boy was hospitalized.

Alexander Bastrykin also requested a report on progress of investigation of a probe into swindling entailing losing ownership rights for apartment in Kaliningrad Region by a senior woman. According to investigation, in August - September 2019 swindling actions were committed against an 82-year-old Kaliningrad resident, as a result of which the senior woman was misled to conclude a gift contract for her apartment in Kaliningrad worth over a million rubles. The said documents were subsequently registered in Kaliningrad Regional Department of Federal Service for State Registration, Cadastre and Cartography, thereby the ownership rights for the apartment of the victim was taken over by a third party.

Upon a media address to the Investigative Committee of Russia about possible adverse actions against the senior woman being a daughter of USSR deputy finance minister Kirill Plotnikov, Alexander Bastrykin requested a report on circumstances established by Moscow Regional Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia.
