
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests a report on progress of procedural probe into death of actress Irina Tsyvina

Mass media sources published an open letter of the daughter of Honored Artist of Russia Irina Konstantinovna Tsyvina to the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia. In the letter she said that she still had doubts about the truth of official cause of death of her mother, expressed dissatisfaction with the work of investigation and asked to carry out a careful investigation of circumstances of the death of her mother.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Alexander Bastrykin instructed the direction of the Moscow Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to report on all arguments spoken by the daughter of the actress and on progress and results of the probe.
