
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to motion the court for the election of a preventive measure, not related to imprisonment, for an accused under a probe into a fire in a Ryazan hospital

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia listened to a report on the progress of investigation into death of three persons in a fire in Semashko Clinical Hospital.

The chief physician of the Semashko Clinical Hospital has been detained the day before and charged with infliction of death by negligence to three persons as a result of improper performance of professional duties (Part 3 of Article 109 of the Criminal Code of Russia).

After studying the case materials the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to motion the court for the softest preventive measure for the accused. In this relation the investigation motioned the court to subject the chief physician to certain restrictions.

The process of investigation is under supervision of the Central Office of the Committee.
