
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia holds a briefing on logistics issues

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Alexander Bastrykin held a video-conference briefing attended by Deputy Chairmen of the Investigative Committee of Russia Sergey Goryainov and Alexander Klaus, Director of Girls' Boarding School of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation Elena Garanina, Head of the Cultural Center of the Investigative Committee Maria Krasnopeeveva, as well as heads and employees of a number of divisions of the central office of the Committee. The attendees discussed issues related to the organization and support of the activities of the Boarding School and the Cultural Center of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, as well as the progress of repair work in the buildings of educational institutions of the Investigative Committee of Russia located in the city of St. Petersburg.

The Chairman heard reports from subordinates on the current state of all premises in which educational institutions are already located, and the necessary measures to prepare them for the new academic year. The Chairman was also reported on the progress of repair work, construction and reconstruction with elements of restoration of a complex of buildings in the city of St. Petersburg, where educational institutions of the Investigative Committee will be located. The head of the department paid special attention to the issues of ensuring the activities of the Boarding School for pupils of the SK of Russia. The classrooms of the renovated building, in which the pupils of the boarding house will begin training from September 1, must be provided with everything necessary for conducting classes according to the provided educational program. At the same time, in order to master the disciplines, it is necessary to take into account the possibility of using the potential of the institutions of the SK of Russia deployed in St. Petersburg.

In addition, the meeting included discussion of measures of organizational and logistical nature, which will ensure the full-scale work of the Cultural Center, designed to carry out cultural and educational work aimed at increasing the level of patriotic education of employees, as well as cadets and students of the Investigative Committee, cultivating their moral and psychological qualities.

Within the framework of the meeting, priority tasks were identified for the prompt solution of all the issues discussed. Alexander Bastrykin stressed that their implementation requires the coordination of the work of all employees involved.

In conclusion of the meeting, the head of the Investigative Committee of Russia gave a number of specific instructions, stressing that safety and comfortable conditions for students in educational institutions of the Committee are one of the priorities of the complex of tasks dedicated to work with the young generation.
