The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests a report on circumstances of provision of housing to a mother, who is upbringing two disabled children in Tatarstan

The day before, mass media reported that a single mother from Zelenodolsk in the Republic of Tatarstan, raising two children with disabilities, was dissatisfied with the quality of housing provided by the authorities for living of her daughter, who is wheelchair-bound. According to the woman, employees of the administration do not reciprocate her, and every day they offer less and less suitable options for wheelchair user housing.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee instructed the direction of the Tatarstan Republican Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to study the legal aspects of the situation and report on the presence or absence of grounds for procedural intervention of the investigating authorities.
