
Alexander Bastrykin requests a report on progress of investigation of a murder of a young girl in Samara

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the direction of the Samara Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to report on the set of investigative actions carried out in terms of a probe into murder of a 23-year-old girl in Samara.

According to preliminary data, the father of the girl motivated by personal animosity inflicted numerous blows to his daughter, as a result of which she died, and abused her body after her death.

The Head of the Committee instructed to establish all circumstances and causes that facilitated the commission of the especially grave offense. Upon instruction of Alexander Bastrykin, the investigation of the probe will be supervised by the Central Office of the Committee.
