
Alexander Bastrykin requests a report on the situation related to violation of rights of shared construction participants in Leningrad Region

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the direction of Leningrad Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to report on the situation related to violation of rights of shared construction participants of Scheglovskaya Usadba residential complex in Vsevolozhsky District.

The Leningrad Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia has already launched a pre-investigative probe into this matter upon the fact of misuse of funds of the shared construction participants by the “Foundation for protection of rights of citizens – participants of shared construction in Leningrad Region”.

Upon the instruction, the investigation is to establish all circumstances described by the defrauded shared construction participants and to make a legal procedural decision in terms of the probe.
