
Upon instruction of Alexander Bastrykin a probe into incident in Voronezh was referred to the Central Office of the Committee

Upon instruction of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Alexander Bastrykin a probe into incident in Voronezh was referred to the Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia for the most comprehensive, full and objective investigation.

An investigative and operative team consisting of the most experienced investigators, forensic specialists of the Investigative Committee of Russia and experts of the Forensic Expert Center of the Investigative Committee of Russia has been created. A number of required examinations has been created. All circumstances of the incident are being established.

Official spokesperson for the Investigative Committee of Russia

S. Petrenko

13 August 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1600779>