
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests reports on a number of incidents reported by mass media

In connection with the media appeal of the relatives of a Sakhalin girl with a serious illness, which requires a detailed investigation of the harm caused to her health, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin ordered to report on the progress of the criminal investigation of a probe under Part 1 of Article 238 of the Criminal Code of Russia into the provision of medical services not meeting safety requirements to a woman and her newborn daughter by the staff of the Yuzhno-Sakhalinsk City Maternity Hospital. (Part 1 of Article 238 of the Criminal Code of the Russian Federation).

In addition, Alexander Bastrykin requested a report on the verification of information from the media that unknown people in the town of Belovo desecrated a monument to those killed in the Great Patriotic War. The Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Kemerovo Region - Kuzbass is carrying out a preliminary investigation into this matter. The investigator inspected the monument, interviewed eyewitnesses and residents of nearby homes whose windows overlook the monument. CCTV footage available in the area is being studied.
