
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia gave a number of instructions on complaints about ecological problems in Moscow and Orel Region

The media and social networks reported on complaints from residents of Pushkinsky district of Moscow region and the village of Alyoshino in connection with air pollution and environmental pollution from the company "RIO Polymer" for recycling plastics. In connection with the appeal to the leadership of the Investigative Committee of Russia, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Moscow Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia A. Yu. Starikov to study the situation comprehensively and submit a report as soon as possible.

Also residents of the Orel Region complained about environmental problems through social networks and demanded from the authorities to put order in the environmental sphere. The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the acting head of the Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation in the Orel Region P. V. Ermakov to study the arguments voiced in the appeals and complaints and submit a report.

The implementation is under control in the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.
