
The Chairman of Russian Investigative Committee orders heads of Moscow Department to arrange a procedural probe after a mass brawl of migrants

The day before, at least 10 Central Asian men clashed in the centre of Moscow, on Baumanskaya Street.

Given that this was not the first such incident in Moscow recently, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russia instructed the Head of the Moscow Main Investigations Directorate of the Investigative Committee of Russia, A.A. Strizhov, to organise an enquiry into the matter and report on the investigative measures taken and their results to establish the causes and circumstances of the incident.

28 August 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1604147>