
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia puts under supervision the facts of disappearing of minors in Kemerovo and Orel Regions

The Orel Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia continues investigation of a probe launched into disappearance of a 9-year-old resident of Kazar settlement of Zalegoschensky District of Orel Region Victoria Gnedovaya. During the investigation of the criminal case, the investigative team, which includes the most experienced investigators and criminal investigators of the Investigative Department, conducted over a thousand investigative and procedural actions, including appointing of thirty forensic examinations and questioning of over one hundred and twenty witnesses from among the local residents. The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia demanded a report on the performed investigative activities from the head of Orel Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia P.V. Ermakov. The progress of investigation is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.

The Kemerovo Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia launched a probe in order to establish all circumstances of disappearance of two 10-year-old girls in Kiselevsk. On September 6 the classmates didn't return home from school and haven't been located yet. The girls' social circle is established and worked through; addresses of acquaintances, classmates, and close relatives are being checked.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the acting head of the investigative department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation in the Kemerovo region-Kuzbass A.S. Bezukladnikov to report on the ongoing investigative actions. The progress of investigation is under the supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.

07 September 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1607351>