
In Irkutsk Region, suspects of an attempted murder of a minor detained

On September 10, in the course of investigative activities and investigative actions by investigators of the Investigative Committee of Russia in cooperation with criminal investigators and SWAT officers of the Office of the Federal Guard Service detained suspects in the commission of a particularly serious crime, declared in the federal wanted list.

Irina Matsenko was detained on the road while driving. Then law enforcement officers found the address of the apartment in the Oktyabrsky district of Irkutsk where Dmitry Matsenko was staying. During the search operatives and investigators found a large sum of money, as well as valuables. It is possible that the suspects were planning to flee from the investigative authorities. At present they have been detained. The investigation will motion the court for the pre-trial custody of the detainees.

To remind, in the morning of September 7, the intruders drove up in a car to the parking lot of a building in the workers' village of Markova. A man doused a flammable liquid and set fire to a parked car with a 6-year-old girl inside. The investigation of the criminal case under Part 3 of Article 30, Part 2 of Article 105 of the Criminal Code (attempted murder of a minor committed in an openly dangerous way, by a group of persons by prior conspiracy) continues.

The progress of investigation is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.
