
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to transfer the probe into disappearance of a young woman in Ryazan Region to the Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia for further investigation

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to transfer the probe into disappearance of 26-year-old Ryazan Region resident Elena Logunova (Part 1 of Article 105 of the Criminal Code of Russia) to the Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia for further comprehensive and objective investigation.

Today, during a program on one of the federal channels, the girl's parents expressed the opinion that the husband of their daughter was involved in her disappearance and report the strange behavior of the man and his relatives. Another point of view was expressed by the relatives of the girl's husband, who believe that she will return soon. Also the participants of the TV show expressed criticism of the investigation, which, according to them, failed to actively carry out investigative actions at the initial stage.

The head of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the subordinates to check all the arguments in terms of the investigation and to carry out a full-scale set of investigative actions aimed at establishing all circumstances of disappearance of the girl and her location.
