
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requested a report on the episodes of violation of rights of Moscow residents reported by mass media

Several family conflicts between relatives were discussed on the air of the federal channel. Thus, it was reported that as a result of the family conflict between the mother and her daughter, the elderly woman has not been able to get into her own apartment for many years; she has to live in a newspaper kiosk and warm herself in the entrance hall. In addition, arguments are voiced that the daughter may be a member of a religious sect. Another example was also voiced in the broadcast: a woman fears that her real estate may be taken by fraudsters after a conflict with her son.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Moscow Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia A. Strizhov to clarify the circumstances of the voiced on-air arguments about the violation of rights and the commission of possible fraud, and to report on the situation.

The progress of implementation of the instructions is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.
