
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee instructs the management of the Orenburg Regional Investigative Department to report on the preliminary results of a probe into the murder of three female students in the town of Gai

The Chairman of the Russian Investigative Committee, A.I. Bastrykin, instructed the Head of the Orenburg Regional Investigative Committee, V.D. Zuderman, to report on the investigative actions taken to date to establish all the circumstances of the violent crime after the suspect in the murder of the three girls in the town of Gai had been identified.

It was previously reported that during the investigation into the probe, it was established that Aleksandr Vyacheslavovich Lazarev, born 23.11.1991, was involved in the commission of the crime and that he was on the wanted list.

Aleksandr Ivanovich Bastrykin has instructed his subordinates to take all measures to locate and detain the suspect as soon as possible. The progress and results of investigation of the probes are to be supervised by the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.

03 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1615984>