
New probes launched against Alexander Lazarev in terms of investigation of a probe into murder of two girls in the city of Gai, Orenburg Region

The Orenburg Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia continues to investigate the criminal case of the violent death of three girls in the town of Gai, Orenburg region, initiated under paragraph "a" of Part 2 Article 105 of the Criminal Code (murder of two or more persons).

As a result of the complex of investigative and procedural actions the investigators found evidence of a number of additional crimes in the actions of Alexander Lazarev, and launched additional criminal cases under Paragraph A of Part 3 of Article 131 of the Criminal Code (rape combined with threat of murder, committed also regarding a minor); Paragraph A of Part 3, Article 132 (violent acts of a sexual nature, coupled with a murder threat, committed also against a minor), Part 2, Article 167 (intentional damage to another person's property committed by arson causing significant damage), Part 1, Article 166 (illegal car appropriation).

To date, the suspect has been questioned, has given substantive evidence, and verified it on the spot:

a petition for the election of a preventive measure in the form of custody against Lazarev was initiated, in the near future he will be charged with a cumulative set of circumstances.

05 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1616660>