

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to intensify the investigation of a probe into disappearance of Elena Logunova

Today a number of federal TV channels aired programs discussing the story of the unknown disappearance in Ryazan of the mother of two children Elena Logunova. Guests and experts discussed the possible involvement of the husband of the missing young woman in the commission of the crime against her.

At present, the criminal investigation continues. At the same time, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the investigators of the Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia, where the criminal case was transferred in September 2021, to organize further investigation, to intensify the work on the investigation and disclosure of this crime.

05 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1616952>