
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to examine the circumstances of the seizure of property from a resident of the Orenburg region as part of a probe

According to a media report, a local resident complained of a violation of his rights during the investigation of a probe against Alexander Lazarev in the Orenburg region on charges of committing several serious crimes. The investigation had confiscated a vehicle belonging to the local resident, which was his source of income.

Alexander Bastrykin instructed the Head of Orenburg Regional Investigation Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, Zuderman V.D., to examine the situation, promptly complete investigative actions with the vehicle recognized as physical evidence, and transfer it for safekeeping to the owner.
