
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia put under supervision the progress of the inspection into the trauma of a schoolgirl in Novosibirsk Region

Today in the course of media monitoring, investigative authorities of the Investigative Committee of Russia for Novosibirsk region revealed a publication about the failure of the officials of an educational institution in Kirovsky district of Novosibirsk to take proper measures against the complaints of parents of students about the illegal actions of some schoolers, which subsequently led to bodily injury of a minor - a girl with a ruler had her eye injured. The Novosibirsk Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia urgently launched a pre-investigative probe.

The investigators are carrying out a set of assessment activities of the actions (inaction) of the officials of the general education institution aimed to establish all circumstances of the incident.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation instructed the acting head of the Novosibirsk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of the Russian Federation, A.N. Badulin, to report on the circumstances of the incident. The Central Office of the Investigative Committee is to supervise the progress and results of the probe.
