
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests a report on investigation of a probe in the Belgorod Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia

The Belgorod Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia was processing a criminal case initiated on the grounds of a crime under Part 1 Article 238 of the Criminal Code for improper medical care to a 15-year old girl. During the investigation two forensic examinations were conducted. It was established that the care provided by doctors could not cause any subsequent diseases and pathology in the child.

Based on the conclusions of the expert examinations, the testimony of the interrogated experts and the results of other investigative actions, the criminal investigation was terminated.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed the Head of the Belgorod Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia S.A. Zakharov to report on the results of the investigation and the grounds for termination of the criminal case.
