
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia requests reports on a number of incidents in regions and violation of rights of a veteran

The media reported that a 67-year-old resident of the Bryansk region shot a police officer with a converted traumatic gun and fled. The Bryansk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia launched a probe under Part 3 of Article 30, Part 1 of Article 105, Article 222 of the Criminal Code of Russia (attempted murder, illegal turnover of firearms). The 34-year-old policeman was taken to hospital with various wounds and provided with medical care. The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Bryansk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to report on the progress of investigative and search measures on the probe. The investigation will be supervised by the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.

In addition, Alexander Bastrykin instructed the head of the Tver Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to report on the progress of verification of information from social networks about a veteran who lives in a house built in 1917. It is reported that the woman's apartment has no water and no normal heating. As stated in the publication, the authorities of the municipal district refuse to provide the veteran with an apartment and do not recognize this house as emergency. The progress of the probe is under the supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.

In addition, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the acting head of the Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia in the Novosibirsk Region Badulin A. N. to report on the progress of the investigation into the infliction of bodily injury to a young child by an employee of a security company. It was established preliminarily that on October 19 in Dzerzhinsky district store in Novosibirsk the security guard approached the minor who was choosing goods at that time and started insulting him, grabbed him by his clothes and twisted his arms, after what the man hit the boy in the back area with his hand. The child is currently undergoing a medical examination. The progress of the probe is under the supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee of Russia.
