
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to give a legal assessment of the actions of the investigator in Vsevolozhsk, who clarified the circumstances of land disputes in the town of Sertolovo

Based on the results of the interim report, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to thoroughly check the completeness and objectivity of the verification measures and procedural decisions taken on the situation with land disputes in the town of Sertolovo, Vsevolozhsk district, undertaken by V.V. Megrelov, an investigator of the Vsevolozhsk Investigative Department.

The check in the Vsevolozhsk Investigative Department continues, on the results of which a number of management and personnel decisions will be taken.

22 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1622417>