
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia ordered to report on violations of children's rights in Smolensk Region and on the situation with the development of the Shcherbinsky fortress in the Moscow Region

Today a media article appeared about a family from the village of Novodugino in Smolensk region, where four young children are being raised in unfavorable conditions. The parents improperly fulfill their responsibilities to raise the minors, while abusing alcohol, using unacceptable methods of educational influence and not following the recommendations of doctors for treatment. The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Smolensk Regional Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia A. Ukhonov to report on the progress of the inspection on the fact of improper performance of child-rearing duties. The progress of the check is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.

Moreover, today in one of federal channels with reference to local residents and public figures it was informed that a private company in Moscow region near Shcherbinka village of urban district Domodedovo within the limits of construction of an object the Shcherbinsk settlement practically destroyed an archaeological monument of VII century BC. The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the head of the Moscow Regional Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia A. Starikov to report on the situation. The progress of execution of the order is under supervision of the Central Office of the Investigative Committee.

22 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1622583>