
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia gives a number of instructions to the direction of the Moscow Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia

Today there was widespread publicity about a derailed elevator in an apartment building in the west of Moscow. There were 11 people in the cabin, including minors. In this case, the Moscow Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia organized a check, which, on the instructions of the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia, was placed under supervision of the Central Office of the agency. In addition, Alexander Bastrykin requested a report from the head of the Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia A.A. Strizhov.

In addition, a number of media outlets have reported the possible commission of fraud against an elderly professor of the RSUH, a culturologist and doctor of philosophy from Moscow, who reportedly lost his apartment, dacha and money as a result of the actions of telephone scammers. The Moscow Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia initiated the transfer of the probe from the police to the investigative body for further investigation.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia ordered to report on the situation, and the implementation of the order was placed under supervision of the Central Office of the agency.

22 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1622584>