
The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructs to transfer to the Central Office the probe into a murder of a young girl in the Orenburg Region

This afternoon in the city of Orsk, Orenburg region the body of a young girl was found with clear signs of violent death. The regional investigative department opened a criminal case on this fact, an investigative team left for the scene, a set of urgent investigative actions are being carried out.

The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia decided to immediately transfer the criminal case to the Central Office of the Committee for a comprehensive, complete and high-quality investigation, including the prompt identification of the person involved in committing this crime.

Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin demanded to identify the guilty person as soon as possible.

23 October 2021

Page address: <https://en.sledcom.ru/news/item/1622768>