The Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed to check the arguments of the lawyers from the Republic of Bashkortostan

In connection with the appeal published in the media to the leadership of the Investigative Committee of Russia with a request to verify the facts, according to the initiators of the appeal, of corruption in the republican law enforcement agencies, the Chairman of the Investigative Committee of Russia instructed the Main Investigative Department of the Investigative Committee of Russia to study and carefully check the arguments of the complainants.

In their appeal a group of citizens noted prejudice in the adoption of procedural decisions by the investigative authorities of the Investigative Committee of Russia in the Republic of Bashkortostan, as well as the possible deliberate delay in the investigation of criminal cases against officials.

Alexander Ivanovich Bastrykin instructed to submit a report on the results.
